

CONGRESSMAN DANIEL E. LUNGREN

2009 CONGRESSIONAL ART COMPETITION
An Artistic Discovery

Congressman Dan Lungren invites high school students in California's Third Congressional District to participate in the prestigious 2009 Congressional Art Competition,

An Artistic Discovery

Eligible art submissions must be received in Congressman Lungren's District Office by April 20, 2009.

All participating student artists, their parents, and school representatives will be invited to attend a Congressional Arts Forum hosted by Congressman Lungren on May 4, 12:00-2:00pm, during which the 1st, 2nd, 3rd Place and People's Choice Award Winners will be recognized.

The 1st Place Winner will be awarded three round-trip airline tickets and two night lodging accommodations in Washington D.C., where they will attend the national ceremony with winners from throughout the United States. The 1st Place winning art piece will hang in the Capitol's Cannon Tunnel for one year.

Burton's Transmogrification,
2008 2nd Place Winner

Crystal Reflections, 2008 People's Choice Winner

For more information, please refer to Congressman Lungren's 2009 Congressional Art Competition Announcement and Guidelines.

Further inquiries may be directed to:
Michelle Panos, Constituent Services Representative
(916) 859-9906
CA03.ArtComp@mail.house.gov

Please Remember to Complete and Print the 2009 Student Release Form, which MUST accompany all art submissions.